

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

The Library of Congress has available at all times, for donation to eligible organizations and institutions, surplus books which are not needed for the Library's own uses. Eligible organizations and institutions must be located in the United States and fall into one of the following categories:

- Full-time, tax-supported or nonprofit educational institution: school, school system, college, university, museum, or public library.
- Agency of local, state, or federal government.
- Nonprofit institution or organization that has tax-exempt status under the provisions of section 501 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (see 41 CFR 101-44.207 (a)(17)) and that operates a library and/or research center open to the public.

The guiding principle behind the program is to build library collections - not to raise funds for institutions or organizations.

Library of Congress Surplus Books Program

PRESENTED BY UNITED STATES
CONGRESSMAN ADAM
KINZINGER

If you are interested in the program, please provide the following information so that my office can assist in procuring books for your organization:

Name of Organization _____

Address _____

Primary Contact _____

Books we are looking for _____

(e.g. genre, subject matter, etc.) _____

